

SCORe Internship Program

Ballard Spahr's Student Career Opportunity Recruitment (SCORe) paid internship program is designed to provide Atlanta Public Schools (APS) Gifted and Talented students the opportunity to learn about the structure and organization of a law firm and determine their interest in a career in law. The internship will include training, research, job shadowing, mentoring, and project planning and execution. Participating students must be rising sophomores, juniors, seniors or recently graduated students, and attend or have attended, the core group of APS's select schools working with the Gifted and Talented program: Frederick Douglass High School, Henry W. Grady High School, Benjamin E. Mays High School, Booker T. Washington High School, North Atlanta High School, Carver Early College, Maynard Jackson High School, South Atlanta High School, and D.M. Therrell High School.

Students will be required to complete a research project during their six week summer internship. The research can cover a range of topics and will be determined in conjunction with the student's mentor and associated department(s).

Program Dates:

- Student applications are due Friday, March 31, 2017.
- Finalists will be required to attend an in-person interview with Ballard Spahr's selection committee in mid-April.
- Two candidates will be selected by April 28, 2017.
- The program will run for six weeks, Monday – Thursday, beginning June 12, 2017 and ending July 20, 2017.

Contact:

For more information, please contact:

Brandice Johnson, IP Marketing Coordinator
678.420.9394
johnsonbn@ballardspahr.com

About Ballard Spahr:

Ballard Spahr, a national law firm with more than 500 lawyers in 14 offices in the United States, provides a range of services in litigation, business and finance, real estate, intellectual property, and public finance. Our clients include Fortune 500 companies, financial institutions, life sciences and technology companies, health systems, investors and developers, government agencies and sponsored enterprises, educational institutions, and nonprofit organizations. The firm combines a national scope of practice with strong regional market knowledge. For more information, please visit www.ballardspahr.com.