Media Center

- Did you know that reading literacy and crime are related? Were you aware that 70% of the prison population cannot read above a 4th grade level? At Connally, we believe that reading is fundamental and one of the keys to a successful life. Derrick Boazman from WAOK also believes in the importance of reading and that is why he will bring his program, Real Men Read, to our school on September 18th.
- Over fifty men from the Atlanta community will visit Connally to read and mentor to 3rd-5th Grade boys during this exciting event.
- Mr. Boazman is committed to forming bonds between young boys and successful men in our community through reading. He stated, "To be it you gotta see it!"
- Mr. Boazman truly believes that young boys should see and have experiences with successful men. The 50 mentors have careers in engineering, law, architecture, transportation, business, and even professional boxing!
